Current Position

Director of Legal Counsel,
Cineplex Entertainment,
Toronto

“After earning my Bachelor of Arts degree in the newly created American Cultural Studies program at Western, I went on to complete a degree in law at Queen’s University. I am now Director of Legal Counsel for Cineplex Entertainment in Toronto. I think, as a lawyer, it is the closest thing to a dream job I could have hoped for!

As much as I love my job, I still miss my time at Western and the amazing American Studies classes and professors.”
